Philip Arderys' autobiography is up there with the best aviation autobiographies I've read so far. His writing is both entertaining and informative and as you read you quickly get a real liking for this highly decorated author. The prologue leaves you in no doubts as to what you are about to read as is a very good introduction.

IMHO one of the very best memoirs of a WWII pilot. Even if Johnnie is well known in the English speaking countries, here is the main facts on his life, James "Johnnie" Johnson the highest scoring RAF fighter pilot to survive the war, he shot down 38 enemy aircraft in the skies over Western Europe between June 1941 and September 1944.
